NACEF Mission Statement

The Northwest Area Childbirth Educators Forum (NACEF) is an independent, non-profit, volunteer organization comprised of those who are advocates for the family and to promote current issues in maternal-child health.

Its purpose is to further the quality of childbirth education through strengthening the bonds between educators, family members, care providers and the organizations they represent. NACEF provides quality educational guidelines and support for all who are involved.

The Purpose of NACEF

- Further the quality of childbirth education.
- Stimulate interest in the needs of new and expectant parents.
- Enhance the education of expectant families during childbearing years.
- Promote current issues in maternal-child health.
- Provide a cooperative network among ALL prenatal educators regardless of their affiliation.
- Provide an opportunity for standardized training and education for childbirth educators.
- Provide a forum for networking among all persons involved in maternal child health education and related fields.
